

Teambuilding Proposal

Please choose between any of the following possibilities and mix them up as you wish!

Choose 1 A-event to start off the morning if your employees need to get up early, and add 2 A-events in the afternoon, or let them sleep for a while and kick off their day with just 2 A-events. It's also possible to choose two identical A-events to fill up the afternoon (for example, two Acting Schools). Then, just choose 1 B-event for dinner time and add the costs together! All costs include the location renting, props & personnel, etc.

Our events are led by trained professionals and usually held in a stately mansion in Sint-Stevens-Woluwe. Other locations are available upon request. Prices are based on 5 to 10 participants, please add another 50% for every extra 10 participants or part thereof.

A — Debate Battle

After some pointers about effective debating techniques, your employees are divided up in several groups and given fun subjects to debate about.

Highly controversial subjects that might cause bad feelings in the group are avoided and the aim is to get to everyone to understand each other better while having fun.

2000 euro +21% VAT

A — Expose the Truth

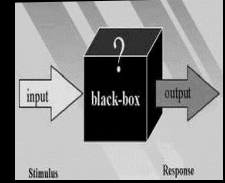

After a short introduction to Facial Action Coding System and body language analysis, as seen in the TV series Lie to Me, each of you employees gets to tell a story to the others. The aim is to hide several lies in the story, which need to be uncovered. The best Human Lie Detector earns him– or herself a Badass PR certificate!

2000 euro +21% VAT

A — Black Box

Using questions adapted to your company, your employees answer questions about each other. Those who correctly guess what the subject person has answered, gain extra chips to cash in later!

2000 euro +21% VAT

A — NLP Pyramid

After learning some of the basics involved in Neuro-Linguistic Programming, your employees get to learn each other through asking the right questions and 'filling in' their colleagues' NLP pyramids. As one goes up through the levels Environment—Behaviour—Capabilities—Beliefs—Values—Identity—Purpose, entirely new aspects about each others' personalities are revealed, helping your employees to gain better understanding and to respect each other more than ever!

2000 euro +21% VAT

A — Mentalists

After we teach your employees how to 'fake it', they start to 'read each others' fortunes' through cold reading. Using hand reading, Tarot cards, astrology or other supposedly 'paranormal' means, to get to learn each other better and start understanding why so many fake fortunetellers are able to fool the masses!

2000 euro +21% VAT

A — Inventors

Using highly specialised gaming cards, your employees have to piece together an invention... And then try to sell it to their colleagues! This doesn't only sharpen their sales techniques, it's also hilarious! Or do you think it's easy to sell One-Legged Mechanized Searing Hot Herbal Tea Killer Robot?

2000 euro

A — Hostage

While waiting for their team building event to start, a task force of heavily-armed special ops troops kidnaps your employees' boss or team leader! Soon, they are told through the radio that they will have to comply with the hostage takers' demands in order to get their boss to be freed. Luckily, they are helped out by a seasoned professional who will get them to work together and use their complimentary skills in order to be successful. This event can be played out indoor or partially outdoor and takes up 2 A-slots instead of one.

5500 euro +21% VAT

A — Make Your Own Commercial

Your employees are divided up in 2 groups and joined by film professionals—including a camera man, a boom operator and a director/DOP for each group. They are asked to make a commercial about their company and their contributions to the company.

The commercial is later made available to the company, including all rights, to be used as it wishes. This event takes up 2 A-slots.

7000 euro +21% VAT

A — Acting School

Your employees are taught acting techniques and then thrust into an intensive but fun acting course which includes scripted acts as well as improvisation.

Even though acting can be a very personal experience, your employees will have to learn how to act as a team in order to pull off the scenes while being taped on camera!

2000 euro +21% VAT

A — Film Festival

Your employees not only learn basic acting techniques, they are also divided up into groups to make their own short films, helped by trained professionals and camera crews! After filming, the shorts are quickly edited and shown to the audience. An award ceremony concludes the day, with categories such as Best Actor, Best Actress and Best Short. This event takes up 2 A-slots.

Of course, all films are made available to your company!

8000 euro +21% VAT

A — Role-Playing Game

After choosing a specific genre, your employees are divided up into two groups. Each of these groups is assigned a Games Master and given pregenerated characters. As their new personas, they will be introduced in a new, strange world where they have to use their communication skills, wits and acting ability in order to make it to the end and win an award! This exercise sharpens many skills at once and helps your employees to work together better.

2000 euro +21% VAT

B — BIO Dinner

Dinner is served! This 3-course meal includes champagne, a glass of wine with every course and water. All food is certified BIO and made from ingredients fresh out of the chef's garden. We work with Fleur Sauvage's Taki, who has helped to create the botanical gardens for 3-star Michelin restaurants, and who always comes up with very original, tasty creations.

55 euro per person

B — Murder BIO Dinner

While delving into some great gastronomy, your employees are surrounded by... bizarre hosts. While getting to know their guests, our hosts (all of them trained actors) slowly start to reveal their secret agendas and desires. When one of them is murdered, it's up to your employees to find the killer! The best sleuth gets a nice award.

1999 euro + 21% VAT + 55 euro per person

B — Undead BIO Dinner

While feasting on some... Strange-looking but tasty culinary creations, your employees start to realize that their hosts (all of them skilled actors) are actually vampires or some other form of the undead! Escaping alive (and with their bellies full) will require all of their wit & cunning...

2500 euro +21% VAT

B — Dinner Games

While having dinner, your employees will try to win several fun games in-between courses. Great fun!

1000 euro + 21% VAT + 55 euro per person

NOTE:

Due to a special deal, we are offering a 10% discount on all events booked before the 1st of December 2013. This deal may be prolonged until the 30th of December if your decision makers aren't available and you are asking for this offer before the 1st of December. There is no discount on food prices, though.

Badass PR

+32 (0)494 38 27 44

dirk@badass.be